Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 13 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain and snow on Thursday petering out in the afternoon.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloudy with further rain on low ground in east, but snow further inland, heavy over parts of Perthshire and Stirlingshire, significant accumulations and some possible disruption. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Thursday:
Rain and sleet, with some snow on higher ground across the west, gradually petering out in the afternoon. Rather cold. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry with some brightness on Friday. Rain and snow spreading east on Saturday. Mainly dry on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.